

Oliver Twist

Da studiare

Studiando

Chapter 1 (1-4):

Oliver Twist was born in the workhouse. Her mother died, nobody knows who was her. Mr Bumble decided to surname Twist based on order from A to Z. Oliver was pale and thin child, every day he eat 3 thin soup every day. One days boys decided that someone will asked for more soup, Oliver was choosen and he asked, but the master hitted him and seized him in a dark room. The following day, a sign was put up at the workhouse gate, offering 5 pounds to anyone who would take Oliver off their hands. Oliver was a prisoner. One day Mr Bumble was talking to Mr Sowerberry, a man that make coffins, so Bumble asked to him if someone wanted 5£ and a boy

---

Chapter 2 (5-6):

Mr Soweberry decided to get the boy, Bumble brought Oliver to him and he opened door and pushed Oliver down some stair in a dark room, and Oliver ate from dog's plate. Then he was left alone in the room full of coffins and fell asleep. Next day a boy came into the room, Mr Noah and told him he will work for him

---

Chapter 3 (7-11):

Noah made Oliver's life very unpleasant, one day he asked him how her mom died, Oliver became angry and seized him by his neck and threw him on ground. Noah shout for help and Mr Soweberry, scratched Twist's face and carried Oliver to dark room. Noah told to Bumble that Oliver was trying to murder him and came at Soweberry's home and went to where Oliver was and said that the fault was that they were feeding Oliver with meat and not soup as in the workhouse. One day he decided to escape trough the windows.

---

Chapter 4 (12-16):

Oliver started to walk and passed near the workhouse, where he found his friend Dick, and Dick said they were locked togheter many times. Oliver said to not tell that he saw him and Dick said "God Bless You". Oliver was heading

London, he was poor and ate a dry bread and then fell asleep. He woke up and continuing walking for 12 miles.

Oliver walked in town of Barnet, then sat on a doorstep, he thought that it needed few hours to go in London instead of a week. Suddenly a boy arrived near Oliver and asked him what's the matter, and then he decided to give food to him. He took Oliver to a Inn and Oliver had a good meal. He (Jack Dawkins) said to Oliver that he was going to London and that tonight he could sleep in a old gentleman house. Suddenly he pushed Oliver inside the house. Jack told to Fagin what happened and they gave Oliver a bed.

---

Chapter 5 (17-19):

Oliver woke up and saw Fagin with a box full of expensive object (rings, watches), Fagin saw he was awake and asked him if he saw those things, he said yes. Then a boy Charley gave to Fagin some stolen object, same for Master Bates. Then Fagin started to walk around room with pursue and watch and Dawkins and Bates got him and stole what he had, they repeated many times and they stopped when 2 lady came in the room, then Fagin gave them some money. Then Oliver managed to steal Fagin's handkerchief.

---

Chapter 6 (20-25):

The day after Oliver went with Fagin and boys in street to steal something, they aimed at a old man and Dawkins approached the old man and run away, Oliver understood what happened, but when the old man searched his pocket, he turned and saw Oliver and he shouted 'Stop thief', police came and Oliver said that it was the 2 boys that stole the pocket, the old man trusted him. The bookshop's owner said it was 3 boys and he was innocent and the constable left him. The old man decided to call a carriage they brought Oliver to home and put to bed.

Dawkins and Bates came home and said to Fagin the police took Oliver, Fagin almost threw a cup to Dawkins's head, suddenly a man arrived, it was Billy Sikes, they talked and decided to find Oliver because he could talk to police. Nancy went and returned and said that an old gentleman got him.

---

Chapter 7 (26-29):

Oliver stayed at Mr Brownlow's house, with her wife Bedwin. (important protrait Oliver was interesting in). One day he called Oliver and Oliver asked him to not send him away, he said he wouldn't do this unless he would give a reason. Then Mr Grimwing (friend) arrived and he has suspect on Oliver, so he wanted test his trust and said that Oliver should bring back the books from shop to trust him and Mr Brownlow gave him 5 pounds. And Grimwing didn't trust him

---

Chapter 8 (30-33):

While Oliver was walking to bring back the books, Billy Sikes found him and caught him and brought him home. Meanwhile Brownlow and his wife where waiting him. They arrived at home and Fagin was happy to see him, then Dawkins got his books. And Fagin got everything Oliver had. Then he told he was at old man house and asked him to leave him. Fagin keep him for a week and told him about a boy that tried to escape and that he had been hanged to make Oliver frightened. One night Fagin left the house and went to Sikes's house and talked about a plan to steal silver from an house in Chertsey. Sikes said that they could get throught a window of the house, but that it was tiny and only Oliver could do this.

---

Chapter 9 (34-41):

Oliver woke up and saw new pair of shoes, then Fagin said to oliver to go to Sikes, Nancy accompany Oliver and Sikes said that if he talked or boycotted he would shot. They gone by the daylight, and waited for the night, Sikes met Toby Crackit . They climbed the wall and Oliver understood what was happening, then they asked Oliver to entry from window but he wanted to alert the family, he entry but he drop lamp and a man, Mr Giles shot him, they got his body and left him in a field.

---

Chapter 10 (42-45):

Oliver woke up with his left arm bleeding, he decided to move and go to the nearest house, so he climbed the steps and knocked at the door. Meanwhile Mr Giles was telling what happened last night, they heard knock and opened the door, they saw Oliver, so they decided to call a doctor, he arrived and he visited Oliver and said he was not in danger. When Oliver was able to talk, he told them the story of his life. Slowly Oliver grew better in their house, it was a new life for him, they taught him how to read and write, he listened Rose play the piano. Oliver was happy.

---

Chapter 11 (46-50):

Spring passed and Oliver grew better and healthier, but one night when he was walking with Rose, her hand started shake. The next day she was suffering from serious illness. So they decided that Oliver would send to Dr Losberne a letter, he wen to an inn and gave him the letter but when he returned he saw a tall man and run away. Losberne arrived at night, and said that Rosie was very ill but she won't die, they were happy, but there were no more night walk with her so Oliver stayed lot of time in his room, one evening he saw Fagin at the window and shouted for help, Mr Giles asked him were he gone. Dr Losberne said it was a dream.

---

Chapter 12 (51-55):

Mr Bumble was the man that Oliver saw at the inn. One day a man with black coat come in the workhouse, it was Monks, he wanted to know about Oliver's mother and her friend at the moment when she die. They went in a secret place and talked with an old woman. They discovered that the mother's name was Agnes and that she had a locket with inside 2 hair and a gold wedding ring, this locket was sold to the old woman.

---

Chapter 13 (56-57):

Bill Sikes was lay in bed ill. Fagin arrived and said that they got to get Oliver back and said he knows where Oliver is, at Miss Maylie and her aunt and he is worth a lot of money. Sikes said he wanted money from him and that Nancy would help them, Nancy came in a room with Fagin and he said he would give the money to her. Monks came in the room and he said he saw Oliver. Then Fagin gave to Nancy the money that Sikes asked for.

---

Chapter 14 (58-61):

Nancy after helped Sikes hurried and went in a hotel and asked a servant to see Rose Maylie. She met her and told that Fagin knows where she is and where Oliver is, and that last night she heard that Fagin wanted him back to become a thief again and and Monks wanted him dead. Then Nancy told Rosie where she is located and she left.

---

Chapter 15 (62-63)

Oliver wanted to see Mr Brownlow so Rose and him went to his house, Rose knocker at the door and then talked to Brownlow why Oliver didn't come back, she decided then to show Oliver to him and he went in the house, and talked about Monks and his plan to murder him.

---

Chapter 16 (64-68)

One night Nancy asked to Sikes to get some fresh air, Sunday night she went at the bridge, and she met Mr Brownlow and Rose Maylie and to Nancy that Rose told him the truth, then he asked to Nancy to tell everything to police but she denied because she not wanted to be so bad. Then they asked to Nancy about Monks and she described him (tall dark, black clothes). Then they asked her to come with them but she denied. Noah Claypole saw everything.

---

Chapter 17 (69-73)

Noah told to Sikes that he saw Nancy talk to 2 person about Monks, he became very angry, so he woke up Nancy and cursed her, he decided to kill her with a gunshot but he thought that it would do a loud sound so he struck Nancy's face with the pistol, she was bleeding and she died.

---

Chapter 18 (74-75):

Sikes was trying to clean all the blood but there was too much that even dog's feet has some so he decided to meet out carrying his dog. He questioned himself what to do and he decide for now to exit from London, when he was near the country road he heard some guards talk about the murder, he then decided to return London for a week because he thought that police wouldn't mind that he was in there, and then escape in France with Fagin's help, and he left the dog.

---

Chapter 19 (76-81)

Mr Brownlow got Monks and he brought him to his houses then he started tell about his father life, he was unhappy married and before die he had a relationship with a woman that became pregnant, she was the was Agnes, the mother of Oliver (same girl in the picture Oliver saw). Then Mr Brownlow said that he wouldn't tell to police but he wanted that Oliver has a share of money so he wanted Monks to sign some papers. Then Mr Bumble joined the room and admit that he sold Oliver's mother locket to someone.

Chapter 20 (82-85):

Toby Crackit and Charley Bates were hiding in Jacob's island, they questioned what happened to Sikes because they knew that police got Fagin, suddenly Sikes dog arrived at the door they opened it then Sikes arrived and they asked him if Fagin was taken by police he said yes. Then the police arrived and they noticed them. They got a rope and threw into the river to escape the back of the house, while polices were breaching, Sikes climbed down the rope wrap around his neck, and he accidentally hang himself. He died.

---

Chapter 21 (86-87):

Fagin sat in prison, he was considered guilty from the judge, then he started think about all his colleagues died the same way in the cell there were other people that were going to die. Then the door opened, it was Mr Brownlow and Oliver, Brownlow asked him where were the papers, there were in bag.

After Fagin's death Charley Bates started a new life. Mr Brownlow got the paper and prove that Oliver must get half of his father property. Brownlow gave Monks new chance and he went to America but he wasted money in there and died in prison. Mr Bumble get fired and became poor and stayed at the workhouse. Noah Claypole continued giving information about criminals to the police.

Oliver lived with Brownlow as his son and they moved in the country house with Mrs Bedwins. Mr Giles and Brittles were still Mrs Maylie's servant. Dr Losberne went back Chertsey but he soon moved to village. In the church there was a white stone named Agnes, helping Oliver remember about his mother. Mr Grimwing came down from London sometimes to visit them all and they enjoyed themselves